

No Harm In Trying Atlantic Harm Reduction Gathering

March 25-27, 2012

Holiday Inn Harbourview
100 Wyse Road, Dartmouth NS
Phone: 902-463-1100 or 877-660-8550

Healing Our Nations is pleased to announce the No Harm In Trying Atlantic Harm Reduction Gathering to bring together Atlantic First Nations/Inuit/Innu communities to discuss and seek solutions around finding harm reduction methods that fit our communities. Partial scholarships are available for travel for about one person per Atlantic community and regional Treatment Centers. All scholarships are first come first serve based on our available budget.

Invited speakers include:

- Dr. Patricia Spittal & Chief Wayne Christian, UBC and the Cedar Project
- Richard Elliot, Canadian HIV/AIDS Legal Network
- Mooky Cerian & Stephanie Massey, Prisoner's with HIV/AIDS Support Action Network
- Brittney Graham, Canadian AIDS Society
- Margaret Poitras, All Nations Hope AIDS Network
- Walter Cavalieri, Canadian Harm Reduction Network
- John Martin, Walgwan Youth Center
- Shaun Black, NS Health
- Panelists: Lived Experiences
- Renee Masching, Monique Fong, CAAN

Expert presentations will be offered with opportunity to discuss and strategize solutions and describe what is currently being done and what more could be done.

Who should attend? Health Directors, A&D Workers, CHRs, Youth Workers, Policy Makers, Government.

Registration Fee for non-sponsored delegates is $75.00 per person, covers meals and breaks.

For more information, contact:

J. Kevin Barlow, Consultant, Cell: 506-521-0012 E: jkevinbarlow@yahoo.com www.jkevinbarlow.com

Sponsored by First Nations & Inuit Health Branch of Health Canada